Your teacher has brought a bag of candy to share with the class. Imagine these red tiles are candy pieces. There are ________ pieces of candy all together.

How many children are in your class? ________

How many pieces of candy will YOU get if everyone gets a fair share? ________

Show your thinking. Draw, write an equation, and write a few sentences that tell about your thinking.