Today, each of you will create a story problem. You will use the storyboards and counters provided to make your story. Your story must match your picture. Think of a mathematical question you could ask about your picture. Write an equation that matches your math question. Include the answer.

Be ready to present your story problem to the class.