How Are You as a Reader?

This is not for you to impress me, but rather to be honest about yourself so that I can help you have a great year!

Name: ____________________________________________

Complete the sentences:

Reading is ____________________________________________

_____________________________________________________

I read best when I ______________________________________

_____________________________________________________

Reading is hard when I __________________________________

_____________________________________________________

I read because _________________________________________

_____________________________________________________

Reading in school would be even better if . . . __________________

_____________________________________________________

If you had to guess

How many books do you think you own? _______________________

How many books did you read in 6th grade? ___________________

How many books did you read over the summer? ________________

Now, let’s discuss your reading habits

1. What is your favorite thing to read? _________________________

_____________________________________________________

2. What do you read besides books? ___________________________

_____________________________________________________

© 2017, Passionate Readers, Pernille Ripp, Routledge
3. How do you decide what you will read next? ____________________________

4. Where do you typically get your books from? ____________________________

5. Do you read outside of English class? Why or why not?
__________________________

6. Would you consider yourself a slow, average, or fast reader—why?
__________________________

7. Would you consider yourself a bad, average, or good reader—why?
__________________________

8. What would you like to work on as a reader this year?
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________

9. What else should I know about you?
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________