

CULTURE

The way of life of a group of people, which is learned

Compelling Question

How does your family and community determine how you live and what you believe?